Dear Sir/Madam;

I am writing this letter of recommendation for Mr. Behnam Bakhshandeh, president and principal coach/consultant of Primeco Education. For the last couple of months, Mr. Bakhshandeh has worked with our team to revisit our performance as an organization, evaluate our individual and team productivity. He worked with us to assess our effectiveness and efficiency during 2019, while preparing our team for increased productivity, performance efficiency for the year 2020 and beyond.

Behnam's business advice, knowledge of organizational development and keen understanding of human behavior has allowed our organization to penetrate the real estate development market and expand our operations to be more efficient and profitable.

We have worked with Behnam and Primeco Education many times since 2010 and plan to continue tapping into their knowledge and experience to empower our organization, develop our workforce and assist us in achieving our goals and objectives.

I am confident that Behnam's other clients would speak just as highly of him as I do, and I believe Behnam is the person who can make a difference with your organization's need for growth and development.

Yours truly;
